

A. P. A. IN THE STATE
NOT FELT AT POLLSBOSS WALL'S ISSUE CUTS
LITTLE FIGURE.

Anti-Catholic Ticket Said to Have Been Elected at Washburn, While in Neenah the Republicans Won With a Catholic at the Head of the City Ticket.

MILWAUKEE, April 4.—Despite the cry of A. P. A. that was raised in all parts of the state by democrats acting under orders of Boss Wall the secret organization does not seem to have cut much of a figure in the municipal contest. In Washburn it is said an A. P. A. ticket was elected, and in Neenah the republicans were successful with a Catholic, Thomas E. Callahan, at the head of their ticket for mayor. Catholics are credited with having caused the defeat of W. L. Lambdin, New Richmond's republican candidate for mayor. Nevertheless the town elected a republican—J. W. McCoy—for mayor on a citizen's ticket. There was a close rub at Plymouth, the vote for mayor being a tie. The independent candidate at Jefferson was elected over the regular nominee. The republican ticket in West Superior was elected by the extraordinary majority of 800, and as the candidate for mayor was endorsed by A. P. A. leaders there, the result was claimed by them as an A. P. A. victory.

BELOIT, Wis., April 4.—Beloit never saw a more exciting local election. The republicans ran C. A. Smith for mayor and the democrats, not daring to face the music under their own banner, headed their ticket with a republican, John Martin, and forcing the license question into the campaign, made a hot fight. Smith was elected by 106 majority, although he was a no-license man, but the city voted in favor of license by 200 majority. Every other republican was elected and the council will be unanimously republican for the first time in its history.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 4.—John C. Koch, the republican candidate for mayor, and the entire republican city ticket are elected by pluralities which range from 4,000 to 6,000. The republicans will also have a majority in the common council.

Reports from other Wisconsin towns received show an almost equal division of the state, though the republicans have made gains.

EDGEMONT, Wis., April 4.—W. S. Haddles (Rep.) was elected mayor by a majority of 73; R. G. Robinson (dem.), treasurer by a majority of 104; Nelson Taylor (dem.) assessor; George H. Metcalfe, (rep.), justice of the peace. Council will stand republicans 4; democrats, 3. A. P. A. movement did not appear to materialize.

BRODHEAD, Wis., April 4.—The license issue carried by 88. Michael Broderick was elected mayor and two republican supervisors. The A. P. A. reduced Broderick's, the only Catholic, majority, 24. The town of Decatur was carried by the republicans.

MONROE, Wis., April 4.—Monroe elected the republican municipal ticket with the exception of assessor and one alderman. The republican majorities range from 25 to 100. The municipal election shows large republican gains.

MADISON, Wis., April 4.—John Corcoran, democrat, was elected mayor by only 15 majority over E. W. Keyes, republican. Last year Corcoran's majority was 985. License won easily.

JEFFERSON, Wis., April 4.—No opposition to democratic ticket. John Reinel (Ind) was elected chairman over the regular nominee.

EVANSVILLE, Wis., April 4.—The Law and Order league elected a president and board of trustees. The A. P. A. cut no figure.

ZEALOTS SHED BLOOD.

Religious Feeling Causes a Fatal Pitched Battle.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 4.—The bitter animosities that have existed here between the American Protective association and the Catholics culminated yesterday in a pitched battle in which two men were killed, two fatally injured, and two others wounded. The dead are:

BROSNAHAN, CON, contractor; shot through the kidneys.

CALLAHAN, MICHAEL, city sidewalk inspector; shot through the right side.

The following were fatally injured: FOWLER, PERRY, laborer; shot through the back.

PATE, JERRY, deputy constable; shot in the face.

The wounded are:

FLEMING, PATRICK, shot in the left shoulder.

McGOVERN, JOHN, laborer; shot through the right arm.

Trouble has been brewing between the two factions for several days, the feeling being deeply intensified by the active work performed by the A. P. A. in preparing for the election. The threatening of the Catholics began at an early hour in the morning, and the tragedy of the day was preceded by numerous affrays in which guns figured prominently, one aggressive man who attacked four A. P. A. men being shot in the head, his life being saved through the fact that his skull was thick and the bullet was a small one from a .22-caliber pistol.

It cannot be definitely said which side is responsible for the unfortunate affair, as the partisans of each loudly charged the other with being the full cause of all the trouble. More than 100 shots were exchanged between the combatants in less than that many seconds, and when the firing ceased the men named were lying dead, dying or injured on the pavement.

Jim Prior, a Fifth ward politician antagonistic to the A. P. A., who supported Frank Johnson, the labor and factional democratic candidate, was active at the head of fifty constables. It was said by some that these constables were many of them irresponsible characters and were the cause of all the trouble. It is claimed that one of Prior's followers fired the first shot. That one was Mike Callahan, and he was a dead man the next moment.

Then the battle began. For a minute or two the discharge of weapons sounded like a discharge of musketry by a regiment. Hundreds of citizens gathered at every point of vantage to witness the battle, which, however, was of short duration. In less than five minutes from the time the first shot was fired the police from station No. 3 appeared upon the scene and quieted the disturbance. Prior's men are claiming that Callahan was an innocent victim. They assert that it was Jerry N. Pate, an A. P. A. man, who first shot and that was the shot that killed Callahan. Harry Arthur, one of Prior's followers, says he himself is the man who shot Pate in the face.

While the riot was in progress it is said that members of the American Protective association telephoned to Armourdale and Argentine, strongholds of that order, for 1,000 men, and that the assurance was given that the men would shortly be on the way. Members of the A. P. A. in this city and Armourdale deny the truth of this story.

St. Louis, Mo., April 4.—Up to midnight returns had been received from about twenty cities in Missouri. In a majority of these the republican tickets were successful, while the democrats carried five cities, and in the remainder mixed results were noticeable.

IN THE NORTHWEST.

Results in Cities and Towns in Several Northwest States.

CHICAGO, April 4.—The aldermanic election here was in favor of the republicans. The new council will stand 42 republicans to 26 democrats. The old council stood 38 republicans to 29 democrats. The other offices were very fairly divided.

CHICAGO, April 4.—Reports from cities and towns in various states in the northwest show the following results:

Sedalia, Mo.—The entire republican ticket was elected.

Excelsior Springs, Mo.—The republicans elected mayor, collector, police judge and one alderman.

St. Joseph, Mo.—The entire republican ticket was elected for the first time in fifty years.

Leavenworth, Kan.—The republicans carried the municipal election for every office. Only minor places were to be filled.

Oceola, Iowa.—Republicans elected aldermen in the First, Second and Third wards. The democrats elected street commissioner.

Hastings, Neb.—The republicans won for all contested offices, there being opposition only for aldermen and members of the board of aldermen.

Huron, S. D.—N. Ray Myers was re-elected mayor for the third term, together with the members of the council and other officials by seventy-eight majority.

License Wins in Minnesota.

St. Paul, Minn., April 4.—A large number of cities in Minnesota held their annual charter elections yesterday. The issues were mostly local and the contests were over men rather than measures. The most surprising result was at Fergus Falls, the city reversing itself on the license question, giving 189 majority for license in a total vote of 935. Last year the city voted no license by a majority of 91.

Republicans Claim Michigan.

DETROIT, Mich., April 4.—In addition to a victory in St. Clair county, no municipal election being held in Port Huron, the following towns are claimed by the republicans: Traverse City, Manistee, Durand, Mount Pleasant, Dundee, Lapeer, St. Joseph, Benton Harbor, St. Johns, Reed City, Three Rivers, Newberry, East Tawas, Cassopolis, Grayland, Bad Axe.

Women Capture All the Offices.

SPRING HILL, Kan., April 4.—At the election here women were elected to fill all of the municipal offices, including mayor, councilmen and police judge.

Crop Bulletin for March Issued.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., April 4.—Another harbinger of spring is here. It is the first crop bulletin from the United States signal service weather bureau, under the direction of Observer Beal. The cold spell has done more or less damage to winter grain, some of the early spring grain on wet land, and to fruit. Reports regarding the damage are conflicting, and it is believed it will consist principally in delaying the advancement of the crops rather than to seriously impair their yield. Many reports show that the farmers will diversify their crops more than ever before.

Brought About By the Czar.

VIENNA, April 4.—The successful termination of the Austro-Russian commercial treaty negotiations, fixing the tariff on imported rye at 1 florin 50 kreutzers, was accomplished by the direct intervention of the czar.

SENATOR ALLISON
DISCUSSES TARIFF.

HIS ATTITUDE ON THE PENDING BILL.

Severe Criticism of the Measure—More Amendments Offered—The House Settles the O'Neil-Jay Contested Election Case and Peace Again Reigns.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Senator Allison opened the tariff debate for the republicans yesterday. He sharply criticized the conditions under which the majority brought the bill into the senate.

The bill, Senator Allison said, practically came into the senate with a minority report. He commented upon the fact that the government had always avoided excise from internal revenue taxes except for war purposes, remarking that the internal revenue to-day was bringing in just about enough to pay pensions, which were a war expenditure in reality. Now, he said, the democratic majority proposes to return to the internal revenue system and expand it in time of peace.

In his discussion of the practical effect of the proposed legislation Senator Allison made a slashing onslaught on the proposed change to ad valorem. He recalled Henry Clay's provision that where the ad valorem prevailed it should be on the home valuation and not on foreign valuation.

Senator Allison said that at the proper time he should offer an amendment that the valuation should be that of leading cities in the United States, instead of that which under the bill as represented by the majority the foreign exporters would put on their own goods. The ad valorem system he declared was a tariff of ignorance and not of intelligence. In his analysis of other portions of the bill Senator Allison was equally forcible.

Senator Call's request of Senator Allison to yield for a motion to go into executive session was the signal for a lively debate, which came upon the senate with the suddenness of a cyclone, and in which Senators Harris and Frye played the leading roles.

The incident finally closed, and a motion of Mr. Call that the senate proceed to the consideration of executive business prevailed. Senator Allison will continue to-day.

SOLDIERS' HOMESTEAD RIGHTS.
Favorable Report on Bill Exempting Them from Six Months' Residence.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The senate committee on public lands has agreed to report favorably Senator Kyle's amendment to the sundry civil appropriation bill providing that any honorably discharged soldier of the late civil war, not now the owner of 160 acres of land, and who has not availed himself of the privileges under the land laws of the United States, may acquire title to 160 acres of land by making application therefor in person at any government land office and paying the minimum price of $1.25 per acre. The law now requires a residence of six months on the part of the ex-soldiers.

Tariff Changes Offered.
WASHINGTON, April 4.—Senator Vest submitted to the senate yesterday a number of amendments to the tariff bill which had been considered by the finance committee and which will be brought forward as committee amendments. There are changes in the income tax part of the bill. One of these changes adds the word "assessed" at the beginning of section 54, and it is afterward provided that this assessment shall be made by the commissioner of internal revenue.

Representative Wilson will be at hand to manage the tariff bill when it reaches the house from the senate. That is the probability, as reported by Mr. Tarsney, who reached the capital yesterday from Texas, where he was with Mr. Wilson.

House Seats O'Neil.
WASHINGTON, April 4.—The house settled the O'Neil-Jay contested election case yesterday by seating O'Neil, the contestant. The vote was 155 to 28. The house then immediately proceeded with the consideration of the English-Hilborn case. After debate a vote was had upon the first half of the substitute for the resolution of the election committee declaring Mr. Hilborn legally elected and entitled to his seat. This was defeated—83 to 136. The next vote was on the second part of the resolution declaring Mr. English not entitled to his seat. A truce was then declared for the night, and the house adjourned.

Increase in the Public Debt.
WASHINGTON, April 4.—The regular monthly debt statement shows the cash balance in the treasury March 31 to have been $153,950,025, of which $100,000,000 was gold reserve. The decrease in the cash for the month of March was $4,712,335. The interest-bearing debt is given as $634,940,930, an increase of $9,068,930.

Thirty Senatorial Terms Ending.
WASHINGTON, April 4.—The terms of thirty senators expire with the present session of congress—fourteen democrats and sixteen republicans—

CITY TREASURER J. A. FATHERS.

INDIANS ROUNDED UP.

Fierce Battle Between Cowboys and Redskins in Progress in Oklahoma.

ELRENO, O. T., April 4.—Further advice from the scene of the encounter between the band of depredating Indians and cowboys was brought here by a courier, who came for military assistance. He reported that when he left the fight was still in progress and that then some eight or ten of the Indians and half that many white men had been killed or wounded. The settlers were rushing to the aid of the fighting cowboys and had surrounded the band of Indians and were slowly and surely picking them off. Two troops of cavalry left the fort for the scene of action, but as the distance is about seven miles, they will not be likely to arrive before the battle is over. Most of the settlers are well armed and accustomed to fighting Indians, and will take the opportunity to settle old scores. The feeling toward the Indians among the people that know them is very bitter, and the chances are good that many will be killed before the troops get to the scene. There has been no news of the battle since the first courier came in, later news is eagerly awaited. No evidence of excitement or trouble is seen among the Indians of this neighborhood, and it is not feared that they will participate in the trouble.

SNOW IN THE DAKOTAS.
Heavy Storms in Those States and Also in Minnesota.

OAKES, N. D., April 4.—A heavy wind and snowstorm prevailed here all yesterday and there are no signs of abatement. The temperature is falling.

SAUK CENTER, Minn., April 4.—A continuous rain and snowstorm with a high northeast wind here yesterday.

ALPENA, S. D., April 4.—A northwest wind tore across the prairie in this vicinity yesterday at the rate of fifty miles an hour, wrecking out-houses, haystacks, fences, and driving wheat out of the ground.

MITCHELL, S. F., April 4.—Assisted by a heavy windstorm prairie fires caused much damage in this county. Many farmers lost all their buildings and farm machinery.

SIoux FALLS, S. D., April 4.—Considerable damage was done yesterday to window panes, sidewalks, and out-buildings by a windgale from the northwest. The velocity of the wind was about sixty miles an hour at noon, diminishing considerably in the evening.

CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH.
Fatal Fire at Calumet, Ind.—Father Probably Fatally Burned.

HAMMOND, Ind., April 4.—A fire in which three children, aged 2, 6 and 12 years, lost their lives occurred at Calumet, a small station on the Nickel Plate four miles south of here, early this morning. The victims were children of Edward Price, section foreman of the road. When the fire broke out there were nine persons in the house. Mrs. Price escaped with her infant and was followed by her husband, who, when he saw that the children were in the burning building, rushed into the flames and was fearfully burned on the face and body. He did not reach the children, asleep on the first floor. Mrs. Price is frantic with grief. The cause of the fire is unknown. Doctors, who were summoned, say that Price will die. The charred remains of the three children were found under the debris and taken to Wanatah for burial.

License Wins in Nebraska Elections.
OMAHA, Neb., April 4.—Politics cut no figure in the election yesterday. The only question at stake was license or no license. In fully 95 per cent of the towns that have reported up to midnight license has carried.

TILLMAN WILL RULE.

He Takes Command of All City Police Forces.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 4.—The great feature of yesterday was Gov. Tillman's public address to the assembled troops and many citizens from the portico of the state capitol. He made the announcement that his next move would be to assume control of the police of the various towns. Then the soldiers, who had been quartered in Columbia for the last few days, were mustered out of service and sent home. Later Gov. Tillman, in accordance with his announcement, issued his proclamation taking absolute control of the police forces of the towns in the state. There is no doubt the governor has all the power he wants under the section he quotes in his proclamation, but there seems to be later laws which conflict. It is thought that if the governor's plan is carried out more bitter feeling will be engendered.

TO BLOW UP STORE OF WHISKY.
Dynamite Is Used on Tillman's Dispensary at Charleston, S. C.

FLORENCE, S. C., April 4.—A bulletin from Charleston says an attempt was made to destroy the dispensary there this morning. A bomb was exploded in the rear of the building.

The telegraph office at Darlington is in the hands of the military, who refuse to permit the transmission of messages to newspapers. A simple message to the editor of the Charleston News and Courier saying that "the military has received a supply of blankets by express" was indorsed: "Office under military control: guard refuses to let it be sent." General Richburg claims that he has no discretion in the matter, as he is acting under Gov. Tillman's orders.

Congress Gets After Tillman.
WASHINGTON, April 4.—Mr. Grosvenor of Ohio introduced in the house a resolution calling for an investigation of Gov. Tillman's action in seizing railway property and telegraph lines engaged in inter-state commerce, and with armed force and violence establishing a censorship of the daily and weekly press of the country, and prohibiting the transmission of news dispatches to the newspapers.

Dictator for Peru.
LIMA, Peru, April 4.—Ex-President Caceres, one of the candidates for the presidency, has been proclaimed dictator of Peru. The dictator is supported by the army, but congress and the people are hostile to him.

Pennsylvania Forest Fire.
LANCASTER, Pa., April 4.—A spark from a locomotive on the Lancaster & Downingtown railroad set fire to the forest on the Welsh mountains near Bareville last night. The flames spread rapidly and by morning several hundred acres of timber were destroyed. The fire burned itself out, having spread to clearings in all directions. All attempts made to stay its progress were futile.

Bread Riots Have Good Effect.
MADRID, April 4.—The cabinet has resolved to establish public works in three provinces for the relief of thousands of workmen now unemployed. This action was taken in view of the bread riots at San Lucia and Ecijaya.

Big Fire at Rochester, N. Y.
ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 4.—The six-story building of Tichnor & Jacobi, corner of North St. Paul and Andrews streets, burned to-day. The loss on building is $50,000; insurance, $43,000.

To Go to Ponta Del Gada.
Horta, FAYAL, AZORE ISLANDS, April 4.—The disabled North German Lloyd steamship Ems, towed in here yesterday, will be taken to Ponta del Gada.

E. B. BUDLONG GETS
THE CLINTON P. O.

SUCCEEDS EDITOR CHEEVER AS MAIL DISPENSER.

For Years the Successful Candidate Has Been Station Agent for the Chicago & Northwestern Road and His Place Will Be Filled By Ed. Eldridge.

CLINTON, April 4.—E. B. Budlong is the lucky candidate for the Clinton post office, having been appointed and confirmed April 2, 1894. Mr. Budlong has for some time been the agent of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad. It is expected that Ed. Eldridge will succeed Mr. Budlong as agent, as he has for many years been a faithful employe.

Mr. Budlong succeeds R. W. Cheever, editor of the Clinton Herald.

STEAMERS LOST AT MACKINAC.

Gale Last Night Took a Ship's Crew as Tribute.

MCKINAC ISLANDS, Mich., April 4.—The wreckage and life preservers of the steamer Minneapolis, grain laden, were found this morning. It is thought the vessel and her crew were lost in last night's fearful gale on the straits.

MACKINAW CITY, Mich., April 4.—The steam barge William H. Barnum, laden with 55,000 bushels of corn, struck an iceberg and has foundered.

SHE WROTE THE LETTER.

Damaging Testimony Against Colonel Breckinridge.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—When Col. Breckinridge left the stand Monday he had denied having written any letter whatever addressed to "My Dear Sister Louise," and he had denied vigorously ever having had envelopes addressed on a typewriter to "Miss Pollard, 56 South Hubbard street, Lexington, Ky." The plaintiff's counsel were unable to produce either letter or envelopes. But this morning they came to court with Louise Powell.

After a long debate between counsel on the advisability of her testimony she told of having received from Col. Breckinridge the manuscript of the "My Dear Sister Louise" letter, of copying it and returning the manuscript and copy to him. She was willing to tell the substance of the letter, too, but Mr. Butterworth objected and the judge sustained the objection. Miss Powell brought forth a high card in the shape of a memorandum book in which was inscribed in her handwriting a minute of the transaction. She was not in the habit of making such full memorandum of her work, she admitted, but she said: "Feeling sure that sooner or later I should hear more of Miss Pollard, I made a memorandum, not wishing to trust to my memory."

Mr. Butterworth and his associates tried hard to shake the witness' story by cross-examination, but they did not do it, and when she left the box the telling effect of her testimony was apparent.

Then the defendant entered the box. He admitted that Miss Lowell, whom he recognized, had done work for him, but he denied flatly having given her the "My Dear Sister Louise" letter or having had any such letter written.

There was another diversion after the recess when Miss Pollard was put in the witness-box. This was only done after a long argument between counsel. She told of having received the "My Dear Sister Louise" letter, and said that she had often written to Breckinridge addressing him as "My Spittire." Her stay in the box was short, and was followed by the re-entry of Breckinridge, who again denied writing or sending the letter.

In denying that he had sustained improper relations with Miss Pollard after his second marriage he said he remembered a time when he took lunch with her and they had strawberries, but was certain that this was before April 12 and not May 10, after the secret marriage, as Mr. Wilson would have it. He had met Miss Pollard in New York in September, 1892, but not improperly, and met her improperly there in February, 1893.

Here Mr. Wilson suggested that as it was near the hour of adjournment, and as he desired to take up an entirely different line of examination, it was hardly worth while to proceed further, and the court adjourned.

Found Gally of Killing Her Tenant.
KOKOMO, Ind., April 4.—The jury in the Mrs. Augusta Schmidt murder trial, after sixty-eight hours' deliberation came in yesterday with a verdict of guilty, fixing the punishment at ten years' imprisonment in the woman's reformatory at Indianapolis.

Mrs. Schmidt, who is a wealthy German woman and the daughter of the late Baroness Schindling of the Province of Zwickau, Saxony, quarreled with Oscar Walton, one of her tenants, last October and shot him dead as he stood in his doorway.

For a Foul Crime.
PEORIA, Ill., April 4.—W. B. Prentice, agent of the Rock Island road at Morrisville, and Max Schaefer, a section boss, were arrested here on a charge of criminal assault. The charge is brought by the Home of Blessing, a local reformatory, from which the girls in the case had escaped. Prentice is seventy-five years old.

And it was.

The entire city ticket with but one exception.

A majority of the common council.

A majority of the school board.

A clear majority for Judge Bennett.

That's the story the check-lists told.

Republicans were jubilant. They poured into The Gazette office until you couldn't have put another one in with a wedge. They captured a small cannon and ran it up and down the

There were several notable features beside the city vote. For one the council stands 5 republicans and 5 democrats with Mayor Thoroughgood to cast the deciding vote. The new

LONG LINE OF VETS
ON OUR STREETS.GRAND ARMY ENCAMPMENT A BIG ONE.

Many Posts Will Come Here Accompanied By Bands and Drum Corps—Notable Men From All Parts of the Country to Be in Attendance.

Few appreciate the importance and size of the meeting of the Grand Army to be held here the 25th and 26th of this month. It is expected that one thousand veterans will be here from all parts of the state those two days. Committees have been at work for some time and have done a great deal of work. The boys in blue will commence coming in on the 24th, and the first session of the Encampment will be called at the Armory on the morning of the 25th. Two sessions will be held that day. In the evening the veterans will meet at the Armory where there will be an informal reception and camp fire, and members must respond with a song or story of the war. Two sessions will be held on Thursday. Thursday noon the veterans will form at the hall and make a short parade, and it is expected that over a thousand men will be in line on that occasion. Invitations have been sent to Milton, Fort Atkinson, Whitewater, Evansville, Edgerton, Clinton, Sharon, Elkhorn, Brodhead, Juda, Albany, Monroe and other places, and most of the above posts will attend in a body with music. Edgerton Post will bring with them a company of boy zouaves. The Monroe Post is expected with their drum corps of fourteen drummers. Many of the Bower City's private houses will have to be thrown open to accommodate visitors on these days, and Janesville will see a larger crowd than has been here for years. Rev. Mr. Lozier, the famous fighting chaplain of Ohio, is expected. The Commander-in-Chief of the G. A. R., Adams, from Massachusetts; Lawler, of Illinois, and others will be present. The Light Infantry and fire police will do escort duty the day of the parade. Two years ago at Oshkosh the entire city was decorated in honor of the boys and Janesville should not be behind in this matter. Janesville will see the largest parade Thursday, April 26th, that has been on the streets for years.

A GOOD DAY FOR THE EAGLE BIRD.

Praise for the W. C. Coup Show. The Minneapolis Evening Journal says "The W. C. Coup Equestrianism and Prof. Buckley's educated horses were the attraction at the Grand last night. The audience was large and enthusiastic, and the entertainment bears out the promises made by Mr. Coup. The horses are not only beautiful animals, but the tricks and feats they accomplish are novel and indicate the clear judgment in training and high intelligence on the part of the horses. "Bonita" is a marvel of intelligence, and the feat he accomplished is truly wonderful. The pony and the trick mule are also clever, while the school and battle scenes are decided innovations in concerted horse training. It is a programme that has never been equalled in this country. There is a pleasing advertisement in the shape of shadow-graphing, singing and other musical features. The equestrianism will be seen Friday and Saturday evening and Saturday matinee at the Myers Grand.

NO REPUBLICAN IS WITHOUT ONE.

CONCERT WILL BE A GOOD ONE.

State University Glee Club Is a Strong Organization This Year.

A notable concert will be given at the opera house April 9 by the Glee, Banjo and Mandolin club of the University of Wisconsin. Tickets will be 50 cents all over the house. The club is composed of sixteen members, among whom are some of the best soloists in the west. The banjo club is composed of twelve members. The mandolin club is composed of twelve members, coached by a member, who before entering college played one of the important parts in Tomasso's Mandolin Orchestra of Chicago, for several years.

AUXILIARY PLAN A TREAT.

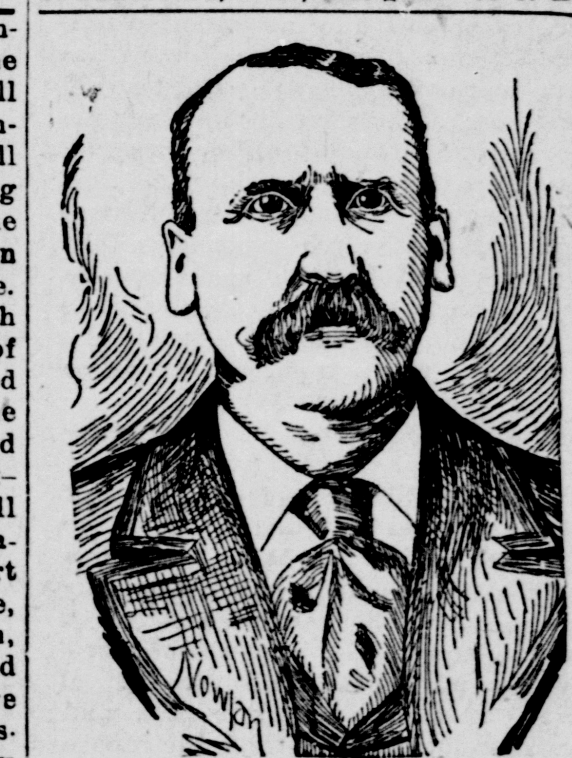

Women to Work For the Y. M. C. A. On New Lines.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. held an interesting session in the association rooms yesterday afternoon. Letters were read, containing cordial greetings and helpful suggestions from auxiliaries at Lake Geneva, Fort Howard, Racine, Ashland, Beloit, Marinette and LaCrosse. Arrangements have been made for a novel and unique entertainment to be given under the auspices of the Auxiliary April 24. Other societies in the city, religious and social are requested to make no appointments on that date.

WITHINGTON PATENT EXPIRES.

Improvement on Grain Binders Is Now the Property of the Public.

Patents on several hundred inventions expired by limitation to-day. Among them were "C. B. Withington, of Janesville, Wis., assignor to C. H.

NO BETTER PIANO
CAN BE BOUGHT.MANY YOUNG LADIES HAVE REGISTERED.

Several Are Already out Laying Wires for the Campaign Which Will Last For Three Months—Burnham & Co. Guarantee the Instrument.

Anybody who wants to know what kind of a piano the Gazette is offering are asked to consult S. C. Burnham & Co. This firm are general agents for the Shaw and stake their reputation on the piano which they have secured for the Gazette. At Burnham & Co's store three Shaw pianos are on exhibition, none precisely like the prize, but are identical in style except that the case is of cheaper wood. The Gazette piano will be finished in Circassian walnut, one of the handsomest woods in use. "As fine an instrument as Janesville ever saw."

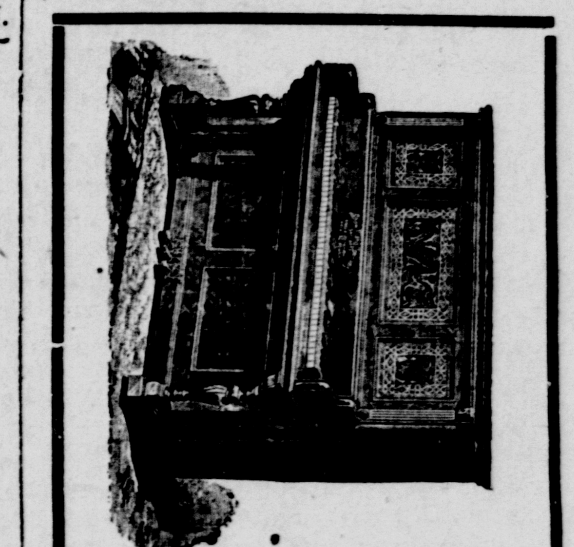

That's what Burnham & Co., say and they know Shaw pianos from pedal to music rack.

From now until the contest closes a coupon will be printed in each issue of the Gazette.

1. Any one, anywhere in any state is entitled to vote as often as they buy a copy of The Janesville Gazette containing the above ballot.

2. Cut the ballot out (trimming on the dotted lines.) Write in the name of your candidate and enclose same in an envelope addressed to Ballot Editor, Gazette, Janesville, Wis.

3. Only one person can be voted for on one ballot.

TESTING A GOOD JOKE.

"Wouldn't it be a good joke to put a brick under that old hat, and set it up for some one to kick? I'll take just one kick out of it before we load it." (He kicked.)

It was already loaded!—Harper's Young People.

A Boy's Curiosity.

The small boy's parents had taken him to the opera. The prima donna had just concluded a classic aria, and when the storms of applause had subsided, the youngster was heard to say:

"Paw?"
"What is it, my boy?"
"Did that woman holler 'cause she was hurt, or 'cause she was havin' a good time?"—Washington Star.

Easy to Identify.

"So he was killed stepping off the car?"
"Yes."
"And a total stranger?"
"Yes."
"Then how do you know that he leaves a wife?"
"No trouble; he had five unmailed letters in his pocket."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Sammy's Style.

Sammy—I wish I could eat corn on the cob all the time, instead of out of a can.
Mamma—Why, Sammy?
Sammy—Why, because on the cob it seems just like a turkey drumstick.—Harper's Young People.

An Innocent Child.

"Please give me some flowers, my grandmother's dead," she asked, in accents low, and the florist gave her half he had, for his heart was touched with woe. Next week she came to him once more, and the same sad words she said. "Please give me some flowers," she asked once more. "My poor old grandmother's dead." And the florist scratched the top of his head, to make the matter plain. "Ah, yes, I see," he slowly said. "Your grandmother's dead again. How often, my dear, is your grandmother dead?" The maiden did not wince. "Been dead a year and a half," she said. "But she's stayed dead ever since."—N. Y. World.

Wanted an Unprejudiced Jury.

Lawyer—I desire, your honor, to call attention to some peculiarities of this case. My client had a piano, a very fine piano, an expensive piano, which all the members of the family delighted to play on. One night the prisoner, a tenant in the next flat, slipped in and fixed that piano so that it would not make a sound.

Judge—Those facts can all be presented at the proper time.

Lawyer—Yes, your honor, but I am sure that a moment's reflection will convince you that if my client is to have full justice the jury must be comprised of deaf men.—Good News.

The Old Man's Occupation.

"What's John doing now?"
"College."
"And Bill?"
"Lawyer."
"And Dick?"
"Preachin'."
"And the old man?"
"Well, he ain't a-doin' of nuthin' much, 'cept supportin' of John, an' Bill, an' Dick!"—Atlanta Constitution.

The Green-Eyed Monster.

Wife (with a determined air)—I want to see that letter.

Husband—What letter?
"That one you just opened. I know by the handwriting that it is from a woman, and you turned pale when you read it. I will see it! Give it to me, sir!"

"Here it is. It's your milliner's bill."
—N. Y. Weekly.

Trying to Seem Plausible.

Guest—Say, boy, what's all this coil of ropes under this window for?
Hotel Boy—Oh, that? That's a burglar escape sir. When he tries to get down on it he breaks his neck, sir.—Judge.

WHY?

Taste of "Royal Ruby Port Wine" and you will know why we call it "Royal." A glass held up to the light will show why we call it Ruby. $500 reward for any bottle of this wine found under five years old, or in any way adulterated. It is grand in sickness and convalescence, or where a strengthening cordial is required; recommended by druggists and physicians. Be sure you get "Royal Ruby." Don't let dealers impose on you with something "just as good." Sold only in bottles; price, quarts $1, pints 60 cts. Bottled by Royal Wine Co. Sold by

Sold by Stearns & Baker.

An Equally Good Plan.

A clergyman, who owns a farm, found his plowman sitting on his plow resting his horses. Quoth the clergyman:

"John, wouldn't it be a good plan for you to have a scythe here and be cutting a few bushes along the fences while the horses are resting a short time?"

"Yes, sir," said John, "and wadn't it be weel for you tae hae a tub o' tattie in the pulpit, an' when folks were singin' to peel them awhile to be ready for the pan?"—Pearson's Weekly.

Stumped Him.

"The reason," said Mr. Figg, who is a little bit fond of airing information he gets from the papers, "the reason red is so obnoxious to the bovine race is that their eyes are fixed on the green grass all the time they are grazing and the red color strikes their retinas with a violent shock."

"Paw," said Tommy, "why doesn't it work the same way with horses?"

An Idea Strikes Him.

Fweddy—Deah boy, the Dutch weally did take Holland, didn't they?
Cholly—I don't know. I suppose so.

"Oh, but they did! Awsk me how they took it."

"Well, how did they take it?"
"They cabbaged it, deah boy! Haw, haw!"—Chicago Tribune.

No Complications Likely.

Father—I am inexpressibly shocked. Your mother tells me you are engaged to three young men.

Daughter—It's all right, papa. They are all football players, and when the season closes I can marry the survivor.

A God-send is Ely's Cream Balm. I had catarrh for three years. Two or three times a week my nose would bleed. I thought the sores would never heal. Your balm has cured me."—Mrs. M. A. Jackson, Portsmouth, N. H.

I have had nasal catarrh for ten years so bad that there were great sores in my nose, and one place was eaten through. I got Ely's Cream Balm. Two bottles did the work. My nose and head are well. I feel like another man.—C. S. McMillen, Sibley, Jackson Co., Mo.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1292—Pope Nicholas IV died.

1306—Henry IV, son of John of Gaunt, founder of the Lancasterian house, born; died 1413.

1774—Oliver Goldsmith, poet and miscellaneous writer, died in London; born in Ireland 1730.

1792—Thaddeus Stevens, statesman, born; died 1868.

1838—Lawrence Barrett (Brannigan) born; died 1891.

1841—President William Henry Harrison died.

1862—Slavery abolished in the District of Columbia.

1863—President Lincoln entered Richmond.

1879—Mme. Patterson-Bonaparte, at one time wife of Prince Jerome, king of Westphalia, died at Baltimore; born 1785.

1888—Benjamin Harris Brewster, ex-attorney general of the United States, died in Philadelphia; born 1817.

MORE TO FOLLOW.

This is a republican year.

Nobody who reads the returns will question it.

Democrats made a harder campaign than usual and had much in their favor but against them was arrayed the intense distrust of the people. Democrats and democratic policy are not well regarded by the men who have worked short hours for shorter wages during the winter, that Senator Vilas and Boss Wall might dispose of Wisconsin patronage. Failure to keep faith with the voters two years ago is bearing fruit.

For twenty years democratic orators could promise glibly anything that served their end. The habit became so firmly fixed that the promises were echoed even when fulfillment was likely to be demanded. For two years these promises have stared the party in the face. Side by side with assurances of higher wages and steady work have come empty shops and idle engines. This spring gave the voter his first chance to tell "reform" bosses what he thought of their conduct. He told them, and in no uncertain tone. Next fall there will be another declaration. The political prophet need not put his ear to the ground to tell what that declaration will be.

And now amateur lawyer-editors may be likened into Mr. Raymond, of the New York Tribune, who leaned back in the tall tower and wondered "how the world ever could have thought that Horace Greeley was much of an editor."

Janesville must get along as best she can with the old high school. In view of the pinching times which democracy has caused, perhaps this is for the best. That extensive alterations on the old school building should be made, and made at once, however will not be questioned.

From top to bottom the republican ticket won splendid endorsement from Janesville people. Even the defeat of T. S. Nolan was hardly a defeat when the vote is compared with the vote of 1892.

Decency has been vindicated, and Judge Bennett is elected by a handsome majority.

WHAT STATE FOLKS ARE DOING

PART of the Oshkosh Furniture Company's force struck for an increase of wages.

PETER WELCH of La Crosse, grappled with a burglar and obliged him to jump out of a window.

AN artesian well on the farm of Louis Kleuger, in the town of Mosel, Sheboygan county, throws its water forty feet above the surface.

FIFTEEN hundred cords of wood belonging to the Northwestern railroad company, was burned at Rathbun's crossing near Reedsburg.

DANE county paid out $160 on wolf scalps yesterday. About fifty scalps have been presented at Madison this spring, and of the entire lot only two were from old wolves.

POSTMASTER Hens Olsen of Sheridan, is under bonds to await trial on charge of burning a number of patent medicine circulars for which no calls were made. He pleads ignorance of the law.

JOHN MARTIN was the successful bidder for the $28,000 paving job at Oshkosh. His proposal was: Gravel, per lineal foot, 29½ cents; grading, per yard, 17½ cent; paving per yard, 63 cents.

A. S. THOMPSON and E. A. Rielly of Beloit were at the Grand last night.

CHARLES SLIGHTMAN now runs on the Madison-Rockford train on the St. Paul road.

SOME WELL KNOWN FACES.

An International Match.

The recent marriage of M. Jules Patenotre, French ambassador to the United States, and Miss Eleanor Louise Elverson, daughter of James Elverson, the Philadelphia publisher, gains interest from the fact that it is the first wedding of an ambassador to occur in this country.

M. PATENOTRE AND HIS BRIDE.

try, though two of the foreign ministers, Romero of Mexico and Mendonca of Brazil, have American wives. M. Patenotre came to this country in December, 1891, as the successor of Minister Roustan. He was promoted to the rank of ambassador in April last. Miss Elverson is a very pretty girl as well as a brilliant one. She was educated in France and Germany, speaks all the modern languages with fluency and precision, and it is said M. Patenotre's attention was first attracted to her by the purity of her French.

MRS. COLEMAN DRAYTON.

A Much Persecuted Woman Sinking Under the Strain.

Mrs. Coleman Drayton, the favorite daughter of the late William Astor, in spite of the fact that the amount she received under his will was not phenomenally heavy, would seem to be in poor health. This will surprise many. Mrs. Drayton has an excellent constitution, but the persecution she has been subjected to in the past two years has told upon her health. She has been residing in the fine house which was long occupied by young John Jacob Astor and his wife. Her life has been exceedingly lonely. MRS. C. DRAYTON. A ride in Central Park and an occasional visit of a school girl friend have been her only diversions, except for the interest she takes in a number of poor proteges.

Mrs. Drayton's health has not been of the best, it is stated, for a few months past. She seems languid and weak. Her old time vivacity seems to have deserted her entirely. This fact will be a source of regret to many New Yorkers in humble life as well as to members of the upper ten. For Mrs. Drayton remains the one member of the Astor family who has succeeded in making herself liked by all members of society, poor as well as rich.

BISHOP POTTER.

The Most Picturesque Figure of the Episcopal Church.

Bishop Potter is now the foremost prelate of his faith living, not even excepting the great men of the Church of England. This fact is recognized abroad if it is not at home, and the tributes to his genius paid him in England would have turned the head of a man less sensible. The Archbishop of Canterbury made the most flattering allusions to him in a recent sermon, and the other prelates in the house of lords have expressed themselves in terms equally flattering. Bishop Potter probably guards the consciences of more money kings and queens than any single American clergyman, for nearly all the wealthy and fashionable magnates belong to his denomination, from the Astors down.

This circumstance has led to the circulation of a facetious rhyme about the bishop's connection with a constituency that may yet be troubled by something that has to do with the eye of a needle. However, the bishop seems to bear his great responsibility fairly well.—New York Press.

HOPE FOR THE HAIRLESS.

Professor Birkholz, of Chicago. Gives Hope to Those Afflicted with Baldness.—A "No Cure, No Pay" Treatment.

Professor G. Birkholz, of Chicago, the eminent German specialist, who for years has devoted his time and talent to the study of the hair follicles, and who has evolved the most successful treatment for baldness the world has ever known.

He will carefully examine each case and candidly inform the inquirer whether his baldness can be cured and the hair be restored. These examinations are made without charge.

In all cases where there are any hair follicles remaining undestroyed by age or disease the professor will undertake a cure, and if he does not effect a restoration of the hair he will ask no pay.

The remedy is an imported one, and the treatment given by the professor is his own, and cures where all others fail. If your case has been pronounced incurable do not take it as a final answer until you have seen Professor Birkholz and received his opinion.

Many persons have small bald spots through the hair. These increase in area and in time produce baldness. In such cases the hair follicles need nourishment. Prompt treatment will bring them into activity and restore the hair.

The success that has attended Professor Birkholz everywhere enables him to give a positive opinion in each case presented to him. Those who are bald or are threatened with baldness should not delay treatment, but call upon the professor at once. 1011 Masonic Temple Chicago.

WEDDING SURPRISED COOKSVILLE

Johnson-Denison Nuptials Were Not Expected.—Other News Notes.

COOKSVILLE, April 2.—Will Johnson and Miss Jennie Denison were married in Stoughton last Thursday, March 29. It was a great surprise to his many friends. They will go to housekeeping in his old home. Arthur Franklin, who went to Chicago with sheep last week found a good market. Adolph Swinson and Miss Anna Olson of Cooksville were married in Edgerton Thursday morning March 29. Charles Newkirk has a brother from Lima visiting him. Miss Maud Herrick will teach the spring term of school. The rehearsals for the play get on slowly, and it is not yet decided when it will be given. E. M. Stebbins has been appointed treasurer of this district in place of Charles Davis who has moved to Stoughton. Van Patten & Newkirk will open a meat market here soon in Al. Whaley's building. John Johnson has moved to Dunkirk and Ole Clifton will move to the house vacated. Jud McKinney has moved into Dudley Van Vleck's house. A dance was given at Otto Johnson's last Thursday evening in honor of the new couple Mr. and Mrs. Swinson. Mr. Rice has been very ill. Only five members were present at the last Whist club which met with Mrs. Helen Richardson. Mr. and Mrs. Saville Champney were surprised Monday evening, March 26, their twentieth anniversary. Fifty of their friends and neighbors took supper with them and left a handsome lamp and a cracker jar as a token of their remembrance. Mrs. Lill Porter is very ill with lumbago. As Mrs. Grace Denison was sewing carpet rags Wednesday evening, March 28, the door opened and she was surprised. It was her birthday and she was handsomely remembered. Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Miller were visitors with friends here last Thursday and Friday.

Gossip of Barkers' Corners.

BARKER'S CORNER'S, April 3.—Mary Barker is home from Madison for a week's vacation. Ladies' Aid society meet with Mrs. Walter Taylor this week Thursday. Mrs. Eliza Hodge is in Milwaukee having her eyes treated. Miss Georgie Richardson who has been making her home with her grandmother Mrs. Earriett Paul and attending Milton college for the past two years leaves for her home in Iowa Tuesday night. Elder Clark returned last week from a two week's trip in Iowa and Northern Wis. Dr. Wood of Chicago was a recent visitor at Mrs. Pauls. The superintendent of the farm work at the county house has moved in the old Barker homestead and is ready for business. Ernie Taylor, and Guy Griffey will use their muscle and brain on the farm instead of at Janesville high school the coming season. Fred Glenn has returned from Chicago for his summer vacation and was a caller on friends in this vicinity this week. School begins this week in the Glenn district. Miss Nellie Jackson of Milton teaching. Miss Lulu Partridge of Milton Junction will teach in the Paul district.

News Notes From Porter.

PORTER, April 3.—The Eagle creamery, which is to be completed this week, will have a gold eagle mounted on the roof. Mr. and Mrs. S. Watson and daughter, of Janesville, spent a few days here last week. James Casey, of the town of Janesville, delivered his '93 crop of tobacco raised here, for four and one cents per pound, to an Evansville firm last Saturday. J. W. McCarthy and wife are moving into the house on S. Dooley's farm. Miss Minnie Hayward and Chris. Ryan, of Evansville, were callers on Sunday. Thomas Stearns is to raise eight acres of tobacco at G. W. Nichols' this summer. At this writing the result of Tuesday's election is not known.

Land for Sale.

Twenty-two-hundred acres of good and low-priced land for sale in northeastern South Dakota. This land is located in Duell county, 25 miles south-east of Watertown, only six miles from the Minnesota line and six miles from Clear Lake, the county seat, in the town of Norden, on the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern R. R. One section lies within a quarter of a mile of Brandt station and all of section 9, 15, 17, and south half of 7 within two miles. North half of section 7 sold for $12 per acre last year. ## A Cry For Help

In the stillness of the night is sufficiently startling. What if no aid be at hand or we know no where the cry comes? This is not the case with that mute appeal made to the resources of medical science, ever ready, ever available by disease on every hand. A prompt means of self help for the malarious, the rheumatic, the dyspeptic, the bilious, and persons troubled with impending kidney complaints, is to be found in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, an ever present help in time of trouble for all such hapless individuals. They should not delay a moment in seeking its aid. Experience has shown its wide utility, the recommendation of eminent physicians everywhere sanction its use. Nervous, thin, debilitated invalids gain bodily substance and vigor by a course of this fine invigorant, which is eminently serviceable, also, to the aged and convalescent.

VICTORY OF VOTES A HANDSOME ONE.

JANESVILLE REPUBLICANS ARE JUSTLY JUBILANT.

People Who Lost By the Administration of the Democrats Are the Ones Who Did the Work—Returns Also Show that the Town's Population is 15,015.

Janesville will have no new high school. The question got a majority of about seventy but the charter requires two-thirds of the vote cast.

Janesville republicans are jubilant today and well they might be. Victory so sweeping as that of yesterday does not come often and show that the men who suffer by democratic doctrine are the ones that did the work. They voted as a man, against the party that took away their wages.

The election returns show another thing that is thoroughly satisfactory to Janesville people and that is that this good town has grown until there are 15,000 people in it. A rule almost infallible, in that there are five residents to every voter. In the matter of city treasurer, 3003 votes were cast. That means 15,015 as the population of Janesville and will divide the wards pretty nearly as follows, taking the vote on alderman as a basis.

First ward..... 2000
Second ward..... 2370
Third ward..... 3070
Fourth ward..... 3390
Fifth ward..... 2255

All around the county republicans showed their strength. It is fairly indicated by the vote for Judge Bennett, but there are many other interesting details.

Janesville's Majority Was 30.

About 30 was the average republican majority in the town of Janesville. Charles B. Downing is chairman, E. E. Burdick, clerk, O. D. Brace assessor and George R. Barker, treasurer.

Haugen Chairman in Plymouth.

E. M. Hangen was elected chairman, and Samuel Honeysett and T. H. Inman supervisors in Plymouth. They were the only ones who had to fight the rest of the ticket going in without opposition. M. Erlinger is clerk, H. H. Dettmer treasurer and John Ogden assessor.

License Carries In Spring Valley.

The Spring Valley supervisors are O. A. Peterson, chairman, A. Guul, Thomas Thorson, clerk, S. Dayton, treasurer, G. T. Hanson, assessor, L. N. Bowles. The only issue in the election was that of license, the license party succeeding in electing the chairman of the board.

Lima Republican By 104.

J. D. Godfrey had 104 votes to spare in Lima, he being republican nominee for chairman. H. L. James is clerk, H. R. Charles, assessor and Amos Gould, treasurer.

No Trouble Out In Center.

Center elected the straight republican ticket with H. A. Egerton, chairman; G. A. Fisher, town clerk; S. F. Wallihan, assessor and Fred Schroder, treasurer.

Clinton Went No License.

There was considerable excitement over the village election in Clinton, license or no license being the bone of contention. No license carried the day.

Porter Went Republican.

Porter went republican although considered safely democratic. Alex White was elected assessor by a good majority.

Fulton Sees the Light.

C. S. Langworthy will serve as supervisor from Fulton this year the town having switched over and gone republican.

Milton Has 261 For Killam.

Supervisor K. Killam was reelected by Milton republicans, his majority being 261.

Notes on the Election.

The number of split tickets voted in the city surprised everybody.

The boys stood by Sutherland and Clemons in the Second.

There were three hundred split tickets in the Third ward, 187 in the Second precinct of the Fourth and 158 in the Fifth.

It looks like a republican year when the Fourth comes within twenty six of electing a republican.

GEORGE BRINK has reason to feel well over the showing he made among Fifth ward democrats.

THERE was consolation for T. S. Nolan's friends in the way he defeated McElroy's majority of two years ago.

Ladies' Furnishing Goods.

Mrs. Woodstock, the milliner and ladies' furnisher on West Milwaukee street, has one of the nicest stocks of dry goods, laces, hosiery, crockery and fancy goods ever shown in the city. Special efforts are being made by her to satisfy the ladies, and not a lady in the city should fail to see what she has. Don't fail to visit her new department. Ask for it and look around.

Clever Comedians Will Appear.

Mr. and Mrs. White, of Frank Hall's Casino, Chicago, have closed an engagement with the Dr. McChesney Medicine Company, and will make their first appearance to-night. Mr. and Mrs. White are specialty people of a high order. They are a whole show in themselves. James Gibbons will assist in the programme in his unique character solo. You can have more fun for ten cents at Lappin's hall to-night than you have had for a year. Don't fail to go.

AMERICA Lodge No. 26, Daughters of Rebekah, will hold a social dance at G. A. R. hall Thursday evening, April 5, for Odd Fellows and their families and invited friends, and those holding invitations to previous dances. Music by Tuckwood's band.

Mrs. R. H. Cook, 22 Milton avenue, having to give up her studio, and leave Janesville for a few months for rest and health, desires all having unfinished work in her keeping to call for it on Friday or Saturday of this week between the hours of 9 a. m. and 4 p. m. She has also some articles for house furnishing for sale, among which is a nice folding bed of handsome and approved pattern; carpets, chairs, &c.

BENNETT WILL HAVE 2,200 MAJORITY.

ALL THREE COUNTIES IN HIS FAVOR.

Rock Rolls Up a Total of 2,100—Green Will Probably Give 300 and a Small Margin Is Practically Assured From Democratic Jefferson—How the Vote Went.

Secret circulars and underhanded campaigning could not defeat Judge Bennett. Even strongly democratic towns gave him majorities. Rock county figures are slow in coming in but he will have not less than 2000 and many put his majority as high as 2200. Green county will give Judge Bennett 200 majority. The big democratic majority in Jefferson county has been cut down, it is confidently expected, so that Judge Bennett's carries the county. Comparing majorities with the majorities on the presidential ticket in 1892 Bennett gained 70 in Watertown and 360 in Jefferson. In Palmyra, a republican city, he lost 112 according to figures given out late last night.

Janesville gave Judge Bennett a majority of 151 the several wards contributing as follows:

Bennett..... 128 272 386 374 160
Smith..... 101 203 226 369 270

Other figures are as follows:

Rock County.

Edgerton—Bennett, 103 majority.

Milton—Bennett, 342; Smith 128.

Bennett's majority 214.

Beloit—Bennett majority 563.

Evansville—Bennett, 310; Smith, 75.

Clinton—Town and village, Bennett, 211; Smith, 149 in village. Bennett's majority 6.

La Prairie—Bennett 50, Smith 78.

Smith's majority 28.

Turtle—Bennett's majority 60.

Newark—Bennett 61, Smith 8.

Lima—Bennett, 99; Smith, 19. Bennett's majority, 71.

Milton—Bennett's majority 261.

Orfordville—Bennett's majority 116.

Janesville Town—Bennett 70, Smith 61. Bennett's majority 9.

Rock—Smith's majority, 36.

Harmony Bennett's majority, 34.

Center—Bennett 107, Smith 38, Bennett's majority, 69.

Plymouth—Bennett 148; Smith 99, Bennett's majority 49.

Porter—Bennett, 155; Smith, 94.

Spring Valley—Bennett, 193; Smith, 76. Bennett's majority, 116.

Green County.

Estimates at noon show Bennett to have carried Green county by about 300. Figures are slow about coming in.

Monroe—Smith has a majority of 60.

Brodhead—Bennett 206; Smith 185. Decatur—Bennett, 63; Smith, 54.

Albany—Bennett, 192; Smith, 136.

Jefferson County.

The democratic majority of 1892 in Jefferson county was 1982. This has been cut down greatly on the entire ticket, and good authorities say Bennett carries the county.

Watertown—Smith's majority 111.

Jefferson—Smith, 377; Bennett, 194.

Palmyra—Bennett, 159; Smith 88.

Fort Atkinson—Bennett's majority 157.

NEW MEMBERS OF FIRE POLICE.

E. Ray Inman and S. B. Heddlies Taken Into the Company.

At the regular meeting of the fire police last evening, Messrs. S. B. Heddlies and E. Ray Inman were elected as members of the company. The invitation from the G. A. R. committee to do escort duty for the parade on the 26th, was accepted, and the company ordered out in full uniform.

Hibernians Return Thanks.

At a meeting of joint committee of Divisions Nos. 1 and 3, Ancient Order of Hibernians, held at Columbia hall Friday evening, March 30, 1894, it was

Resolved, That a vote of thanks be extended to all who participated in making such a grand success of our musical and literary entertainment held March 17, 1894, and it was further

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the Daily Gazette and Daily Recorder, and copy of each be sent to each participant.

W. M. Cunningham, president; T. B. Leabey, secretary; John J. Connolly, treasurer. I. F. Connors, John Crowley, Joseph Donahoe. M. J. Dougherty, James Riley, John Hefernan, John Gleason, committee.

None But the Best.

We keep the best fruit, cigars, tobacco, candy of all kinds, nuts, and everything the season affords. We have added a regular milk dairy to our business, and can furnish sweet cream and milk at all times. In connection with our confectionery fruit, nuts, sweet cream and milk, we have one of the finest soda fountains in the city. We manufacture all our own syrup and will guarantee you the best drink ever drawn from a fountain in the city. MEMBERS of the Duplicate Whist club gave one of the prettiest club parties of the season at Columbia hall last evening. The floor was well filled and the scene was a brilliant one.

MEDICINE COMPANY DREW WELL Lappins Hall Crowded to the Door By An Enthusiastic Audience.

Lappins hall was crowded to the doors last night and standing room was at a premium. The occasion was the first appearance of the McChesney Medicine Co's. Comedy and Concert Co., and a very creditable entertainment was given. The Young Men's mandolin club executed some fine work and was encored. Dr. Serrett talked Sanspareil and Cureau and performed some clever tricks that were thoroughly appreciated. James H. Cullen in his drum major act was heartily enjoyed, while James Gibbons in a burlesque role captured the house. The company has been strengthened today by securing the best comedy talent that could be secured in Chicago and the entertainment to-night will be first class in every respect. After playing a week in Janesville, they will go on the road. The Dr. McChesney Medicine Co. start out under favorable auspices, and will prove one of the best institutions in the city. Their literature will advertise Janesville throughout the north-west and will prove a benefit to the Bower City.

THE TIE THAT BINDS.

Peterson—Dee.

At the residence of the officiating clergyman, Dean E. M. McGinity, William Peterson, of Chicago, and Miss Margaret Dee, of this city, were joined in marriage at high noon today. The bride was attended by Miss Annie Reddy, of Whitewater, and Mr. Morris Dee, acted as best man. The bride was attired in pale green silk, with velvet and chiffon trimmings and carried beautiful bride's roses, while the bridesmaid wore a pale green bengaline and a beautiful bunch of pink roses. After the ceremony the bridal party returned to the home of the bride's parents 274 West Milwaukee street where a bountiful wedding dinner was served. The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful and valuable presents, among which was a beautiful piano from the bride's father, a $500 check from the groom's mother, and a check of $200 from the bride's father. Among the guests from abroad, were Mrs. Peterson, of Madison, mother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mahr and Mrs. Brady, of Baraboo; Miss Delia Nee, of Fort Atkinson; and John Dwyer, of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson left on the 4:45 train for their future home in Chicago, where the groom is employed as locomotive engineer on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road.

BRIEF NOTES ABOUT TOWN.

Gertie E. Marsden.

Death claimed the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Marsden at their home on Oakland avenue last night and the happy home is now one of desolation and sorrow. Little Gertie, had only been with them nineteen months and that she should be called away at that tender age seemed a sad blow indeed. The funeral will be held from the house at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Stone Celebrate.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stone celebrated the thirtieth anniversary of their wedding at their home on Jackson street last night. Cards, refreshments and good cheer made the evening a very enjoyable occasion and several costly presents that were left by the guests will keep the pleasant memories green.

Lee C. Kelly.

Lee C. Kelly, the four months' old son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Kelly of 2 Adams street, died this morning. The funeral will be held from St. Paul's church at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

ATKINSON GOES TO A PRISON CELL.

JAIL BREAKING NOT THE ONLY
OFFENSE LAID TO HIM.

Two Burglaries Also Stare Him in the Face—Charles Sloan's Wolf Robe Stolen From the Buggy—Wixom and Reed Cases Are Both Continued.

Jail breaking and two charges of burglary are the trivial offenses laid to William Atkinson's door. Atkinson is a born crook. States prison is his sphere of usefulness and that's where he'll be in a short time. Now the police couple with his name in the disappearance of $50 worth of carpenter's tools from John Nelson's barn at his home on Park avenue. The tools were in the barn under lock and key and police lay the burglary to Atkinson. The offense was committed in the night time and that makes it a state prison offense. Atkinson is an all around bad man and was the ringleader of the big jail delivery some weeks ago. Officer Hogan caught him in the Chicago and Northwestern freight yards yesterday, it being the first time he has been seen in Janesville since. Officer Hogan has found some of the stolen tools and thinks he knows where the balance of them are. The offense for which Atkinson was under arrest at the time he broke jail, was the burglary of Wolf's tobacco warehouse, for which offense his partner "Biddy" O'Rourke served his term.

Atkinson saved the police all their intended work this afternoon by appearing in court with his attorney, T. S. Nolan, and pleading guilty to the charge of the Wolf burglary. Judge Phelps then sentenced him to the state prison at Waupun for two years.

Robe Thieves Are Thick.

Burglary is not the only act to which wicked men are turning their hands. Buffalo and wolf robes seem to be convenient articles to steal. Charles Sloan's horse was hitched last night in front of his cigar store when some one lifted out the wolf robe, valued at twenty dollars and forgot to return it. The police are now looking for it but as yet they have not found it.

Chief Acheson arrested Ernest Bloom, alias Daly, yesterday on the charge of stealing a robe from William Walkley. Bloom is now in jail but he claims that the robe was given him by Walkley's son. The officers are inclined to think it fishy as Bloom didn't confine his operations to that. Yesterday he visited A. W. Allison's house and said that Mr. Allison had sent him up to get $1.50. Mrs. Allison finally gave it to him and when her husband learned of it he made a complaint charging Bloom with obtaining money under false pretenses.

Marsh Reed, the Beloit man who is charged with committing an assault on a three year old girl, was before the municipal court this morning and upon District Attorney Wheeler's motion the case was continued until April 7 at 10 o'clock a. m. S. W. Menzies appears for the defense.

Wixom Wiggling in the Coils.

Clarence W. Wixom is wiggling in the coils of the law. He is charged with stealing a set of harness at Afton, and it is intimated that his work did not end there. Wixom was before the municipal court this morning, but the case was held open until 2 o'clock this afternoon. When the case was again continued until April 6 at 9 o'clock a. m. Wixom, it is said, is endeavoring to get the charges against him combined into one complaint and then take his medicine.

JENNIE'S RIDE.

During the Revolutionary war there was a strip of land in Westchester county, N. Y., called the neutral ground. It was so named because it was not held by either the American or British army, but lay between them, forming a common foraging ground for both.

Near the center of this famous neutral ground there lived a widow, gentle Mrs. McNeal, and her pretty 15-year-old daughter Jennie. The father had been as brave as he was honest and several times had laid down his farming implements to take part in the Indian wars that at an earlier period had devastated the land of his adoption. He was an intense American, and had not his career been brought suddenly to a close by the common enemy—death—just on the eve of the battle of Lexington, he would doubtless have laid his life on the altar of his beloved country, a willing sacrifice.

Jennie not only inherited her father's patriotism, but his fearlessness as well, and she and her mother, refusing the advice of friends to move into a more protected section, remained in the home that love had provided for them unmolested by friend or foe until two years of strife and bloodshed had passed away.

Though gentle and loving to her friends, there was plenty of fire in Jennie's black eyes, and those who were evil disposed knew that she would not hesitate to use her father's old gun, which hung high up on the kitchen wall, should it become necessary for her own or her mother's protection.

One dark, rainy night late in November, after the evening work was finished and she and her mother had settled themselves for a pleasant hour's chat, there came a loud knocking at the outer door. Jennie ran to draw the bolt, but before she had time to raise the latch the door was thrown open, and in walked a dozen or more dragoons. That they were British soldiers their stained and muddy red coats plainly showed, but withal they were gentlemen, a fact which Jennie's quick eye detected and made her feel that helpless women were safe in their presence. The leader, called by the other soldiers Captain Long, bowed courteously and in a respectful tone asked for something to eat, saying that they would pay for all the trouble they made. And then he added: "Please, madam, be as quick as possible about placing food before us, for we have to ride 10 miles to catch Colonel Adair of the rebel army, who is at home for the night. Hurry up now, my pretty lass," he continued, turning to Jennie. "He is a lucky chap if he slips me this time, and you shall be well paid if you give us a lift by hastening us on our journey."

Jennie went to the kitchen to help her mother apparently as unconcerned as if the gray haired colonel was altogether unknown to her. But for all that her heart was very heavy, for next to her mother the brave old warrior was the best friend she had on earth. Her father had fought by his side, and once on the field of battle he had saved that dear father's life.

He had taught her how to row and ride and shoot, and since her father's death he had looked after her mother and herself with as much interest as if they really belonged to him. She must save him at any cost, and while she worked her brain was busy with schemes to accomplish her purpose. As soon as the redcoats were seated at the table, without a word even to her mother, who divined her object, she slipped out of the back door, and running down to where the horses were feeding she sprang upon the captain's fiery steed and in a moment was galloping down the hilly, rock strewn path, heedless alike of storm or darkness. She had not dared to wait for cloak or bonnet, and whenever the ragged lightning gleamed her long black hair might have been seen streaming out behind her.

Her flight was not discovered until the dragoons were ready to mount, and then began a chase for life or death. Soon from the mute hills over which she had passed Jennie heard the clatter of hoofs in hot pursuit, but she had chosen the captain's gray, the swiftest flier among the steeds, and for miles the distance between her and her pursuers increased rather than diminished. On and on she sped, fire flying from the rocky road as the gray horse's iron shoes clashed along at a fearful pace.

More than half of the distance had been covered when far in the rear came a command, loud and stern, "Halt, or your blood be on your head!"

"On, on, brave beast—on for your life! Don't fail me now!" cried Jennie, stroking the horse's foaming neck with coaxing hand.

"Halt!" again came the voice of dread. "Halt, halt, or take the risk of losing your life!"

No answer being returned, a volley of leaden bullets rattled after her. They passed her as the maddened flight continued, screaming to the right, screaming to the left, whizzing over her head like so many harmless birds seeking for shelter from the night's storm.

With a prayer of thanksgiving on her lips she rushed on over the slippery track, through wood and valley, over hill and plain, the gray horse as true as steel, until in an unlucky leap he stumbled and fell, throwing his rider with force against a rock on the edge of the ditch over which he had tried to spring.

The foaming steed was unhurt and in a moment was on his feet again, but poor Jennie fared worse and rose with a broken arm hanging useless by her side. Regardless of the numbing pain, she clung tenaciously to the horse's bridle, and after quieting him by gentle words and patting him softly with her able hand she managed to spring into the saddle and gave the brave fellow free rein. "Now do your best," she said coaxingly as she stroked his long mane.

"Do your best, my good fellow, for upon you depends the safety of my friend, good Colonel Adair."

As if understanding the entreaty, the gray horse raised his head, and setting his feet firmly gathered his strength once more, as if for a final plunge; then, galloping down the steep hillside, he gained on the troopers at every leap until he paused at the colonel's gate fully a furlong ahead of the pursuers. Throwing the rein over the gatepost, Jennie rushed up the path and without knocking flung open the colonel's door, crying in her eager haste: "Quick, be quick, colonel, I say! Fly, fly for your life, for the redcoats are at the door. Don't wait—you've not a moment to spare. They come! They come! Away! Away!" And then she fainted and sank to the floor.

With a hasty goodbye the colonel left his bright fireside and rushed out into the night's fearful storm, not, however, until he had kissed the pale brow of the girl who had risked her own life to save his.

Springing on his horse, always saddled for just such emergencies, he was soon on his way to where the patriot army was in camp.

The tramp of the troopers' horses roused Jennie from her swoon, and as the angry men came rushing in she turned her pale face toward them and laughed, even in the midst of a moan, as she said feebly:

"Good sirs, your bird has flown, and it was I who frightened him from his nest. Do not harm his dear ones in the home, but do with me as you think I deserve. I only am to blame."

"You need not fear, my brave lass," said young Captain Long, bowing low. "Of all heroic women I must crown you queen. Never before have I seen such courage in one so young, and for your sake not a hair of Colonel Adair's head shall be harmed. Even if he were here in his quiet home this minute chivalry would forbid his capture in your presence. I am sorry that my brave gray Jess did not carry you through without stumbling in such an awkward fashion as to break your arm. He is usually sure footed, and the darkness and an unknown road must excuse the blunder."

"He made up for the ill luck after the fall," suggested one of the troopers. "I mean in speed, which of course could not restore the broken bone, a fact we all regret," he added gallantly.

"I do not mind that since my good friend, the colonel, is out of your power," said Jennie, trying to smile. "How cruel in strong young men like you to try to harm an old man—a gallant soldier, too, like Colonel Adair! I should think you would be ashamed of yourselves."

"War is war, my fair young miss," answered the captain, "and nothing that war demands can be called cruel. This Colonel Adair is worth a whole regiment of us, and the way you have baffled us will prove a great disappointment to our cause."

"Still I honor you for your bravery and loyalty to your friend, and if you will wear this ring as a token of my admiration I will come back and marry you when the war is over."

"There's a lad in Putnam's corps who told me the same thing the morning he marched away to the beat of the drum. I promised to be true as steel to him, and as you two could never agree I think you may keep your ring for some pretty British maid who cares for you more than I do," was Jennie's reply.

The captain laughed as he slipped the ring back on his little finger, and waving her goodbye rushed out, mounted his gray Jess and was soon clattering down the rough road after his men. Regardless of her broken arm, Jennie insisted upon returning home that night, as her mother would be in distress until she knew she was safe. But Mrs. Adair would not suffer her to take this risk, knowing as she did the danger to be incurred. Instead she dispatched a messenger to the little brown cottage with the information that she would keep Jennie until morning, and being pretty much of a surgeon herself she set the broken arm and made the young girl as comfortable as possible until she could be removed to her mother's home. At the close of the war Jennie gave her hand and her heart as well into the keeping of the lad who had marched away with Putnam's corps, and she lived to relate her experience of that night to her children and her children's children—down to the fourth and it may be even to the fifth generation.—Chicago News.

Their Asylum.

At a council meeting in the town of Sunderland a well known alderman astonished the meeting by saying, "Gentlemen, we have been sending our lunatics to Sedgfield asylum for a long time now, and it has cost us a great sum of money, but I am glad to make the statement that we have now built an asylum for ourselves."—Durham (England) Chronicle.

Sedan Chairs.

Sedan chairs are one of the latest innovations in the modern drawing room. They are made of wickerwork, lined with some pretty color and are not so large as the original which suggested them, but more resemble the prosaic gigtop.—Philadelphia Call.

THE best investment

in real estate is to keep buildings well painted. Paint protects the house and saves repairs. You sometimes want to sell—many a good house has remained unsold for want of paint. The rule should be, though, "the best paint or none." That means

A VETERAN'S VERDICT.

The War is Over. A Well-known Soldier, Correspondent and Journalist Makes a Disclosure.

Indiana contributed her thousands of brave soldiers to the war, and no state bears a better record in that respect than it does. In literature it is rapidly acquiring an enviable place. In war and literature Solomon Jewell, well known as a writer as "Sol," has won an honorable position. During the late war he was a member of Co. M, 2d N. Y. Cavalry and of the 13th Indiana Infantry Volunteers. Regarding an important circumstance he writes as follows:

"Several of us old veterans here are using Dr. Jewell's Restorative Nerve, Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills, all of them giving splendid satisfaction. In fact, we have never used remedies that compare with them. Of the Pills we must say they are the best combination of the qualities required in a preparation of their nature we have ever known. We have none but words of praise for them. They are the outgrowth of a new principle in medicine, and tone up the system wonderfully. We say to all, try these remedies."

Solomon Jewell, Marion, Ind., Dec. 5, 1892. These remedies are sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles $5, express prepaid. They positively contain neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.

The Thushness of It.

We have a new house, a good one, that we want to sell cheap, and take as part payment $1000 of tobacco, of the crops of 1892 and 1893. Here is your chance.

We have a nice genteel business in the heart of the city; no such chance ever before offered, for a good man and wife to earn easily a good living. We will exchange it for a good house and lot, and pay the difference in cash.

We have excellent homes at $500, $450, $1,000, $1,200, $1,500; (this one has over 2½ acres of land right in the city, with good house, barn, well, cistern, fruit, &c.); $1,750, $2,000 and so along up to $10,000.

We have seventy acres good land, but cheap, to exchange as part payment on a good home. Land free and clear and will pay some cash difference on home that suits.

We have some money to loan in sums to suit. We want one first class loan of $1,000 and another of $1,50

OUT IN THE RAIN COXY MARCHES.

COMMONWEALERS CAUGHT BY THE DOWN-POUR.

Thirty Five Recruits Last Night and Two Hundred This Morning—A Thousand Union Labor Men Escorted the Sorry Procession Into Allegheny.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 4.—Organized labor is beginning to take a decided interest in Coxy. He has already been in receipt of several delegations, but yesterday at Allegheny, Pa., he was met by 1,000 men of the Iron Workers', Cornice Workers' and Bakers' unions, who escorted him into town. All the other receptions pale into insignificance beside this one. The army is steadily growing in size. From seventy-eight men a week ago the commonweal has swelled to nearly 500. Instead of being opposed to it Pittsburgh and its environs seem positively glad to see Coxy's army. A wagon load of bread and a quantity of other provisions were sent to the camp. C. A. Burrows and J. H. Stevenson, who have made all the Pittsburgh arrangements, claim the army will be reinforced by fully 300 Pittsburgh men to-day.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 4.—Gen. Frye's army of unemployed workmen arrived at Jefferson barracks from Poplar Bluff yesterday, and are camped in the railroad yards at Ivory station. Over the car in which were Gen. Frye's headquarters floated the American flag. Old Glory was saluted by a company of United States regulars as the train came to a stand before the barracks platform. There were 600 men in Frye's army in all, and they appeared to be a well-disciplined and respectable lot of men.

COKE MOBS ARE IN POWER.

Day of Rioting in the Connellsville District.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., April 4.—The Connellsville coke region is convulsed again by a labor war. On one side are 12,000 starving coke workers, and on the other are the operators, who say they are making no money and can not afford to yield to the demands of the men for increased pay.

From one end of this region to the other rioting and disorder hold full sway. Human life is in danger and the destruction of property is being carried on every hand. Armed mobs of drunken and furious workmen, mostly foreigners, are traversing the coke field committing all manner of depredations, subjecting the men who have a desire to work to the most inhuman treatment and demolishing the property of the manufacturers at will. The civil authorities are in charge throughout the region and are doing everything in their power to preserve the peace. They are, however, inadequate to the task, and a military force alone can restore order. The strike is the result of the grasping policy of the mine operators. The mining rate has been cut in the last eighteen months from $1 to 58 cents except at the works of the Frick company, where until Feb. 1 the men received $1, since when they have been paid 90, and they were in a state of destitution that prepared them for anything.

At sunrise bands of rioters were formed everywhere in the district, and the day was spent by them in marching from one plant to another, driving the workmen from their duty and destroying the property of the companies. The men at the Vanderbilt works of the W. J. Rainey company worked under the protection of armed deputies. A fierce mob is there and a battle is expected soon.

Yesterday 1,000 men from the Oliver plant, the Stewart Iron company plant and the Lemonts of the McClure Coke company organized at Oliver, armed themselves and, marching through this town to martial music, went to the Leith, Brownfield & Wynn works of the Frick company, where nearly 600 defenseless men were working. The gang swept down on them with fury, driving them from the yards like sheep. No shooting was done, but clubs and stones were used freely. Two of the workmen resisted and were knocked down with clubs, beaten to insensibility, and left in the road for dead. The men in the mine did not come out and narrowly escaped suffocation.

Another mob of 1,500 men assembled at Trotter and visited all the plants from Broadford to Scottsdale, compelling the men to lay down their tools and strike.

A big conflict is expected here to-day when another attack will be made on the workmen. A mob of 1,500 starving men is prowling around Scottsdale and a wholesale pillage is expected. The leaders have ordered the strikers to keep within the bounds of the law, but they can not control the foreigners.

CLEARFIELD, Pa., April 4.—The strike and disorder in the Connellsville region is spreading to this district, where the men have the same grievances. The prospect is that rioting and bloodshed will result here in a few days.

Will Ask for a Receiver.

KANSAS CITY, Kan., April 4.—The New York Life Insurance company has begun foreclosure proceedings against the Wyandotte Loan and Trust company, and has served notice on the officers here that on April 9, at Topeka, it will ask Judge Reiner for the appointment of a receiver for the company.

Austrian Reichsrath Opens Quietly.
VIENNA, April 4.—The reichsrath assembled without special incident.

A BLUEBEARD'S CASTLE.

A St. Thomas Man Who Disposed of Seven Wives.

St. Thomas, one of the West India islands, is a Danish possession, and has a curious history. In the past it flourished only on its own vices and its neighbors' misfortunes. When it grew virtuous it ceased to be happy. Its neighbors' gain proved its own loss.

Slavery was an institution until 1843, and until that time sugar was cultivated with a success that studded the thirty-three square miles of the island's surface with large plantations and handsome mansions. But in the fatal year that slavery was abolished the colored population, which is more than three-quarters of the whole, preferred to give up steady work, and now only a few vegetables, a little fruit and some green grass are cultivated.

It has one town named Charlotte Amelia, but the natives insist upon calling it, as well as the island, St. Thomas. The town is garrisoned by a force of 100 men, who protect the lives and liberties of 5,000 citizens. The little town lies at the foot of high hills covered with stunted trees and shrubs. It is very picturesque with its white houses, mostly red-roofed, and only wants a big church to recall some of the small towns along the Italian Riviera. Above it stands two ancient towers called Bluebeard's and Blackhead's castles. They were built two centuries ago by brothers, one of whom had a happy faculty of getting rid of his wives—hence the name of Bluebeard—and was not called to account by his Maker until he had made an end of seven Mrs. Bluebeards.

THE HOUSE SNAKE.

It Is Harmless and the Mountaineers Object to Its Being Killed.

In mountainous countries there is a small species of the snake tribe known as the "house snake." It is a harmless reptile, but entirely too familiar, going into the houses whenever it can, and finding its way into drawers, cupboards, and other places in an unaccountable way. By many people it is supposed to bring bad luck to kill one of these serpents, and they are chased out of the house as a dog or a chicken would be. As the houses are usually log cabins, with crevices between the logs, it is an easy matter for them to enter whenever they feel so disposed. I was traveling in the Ozark mountains one time, and stopped at a log cabin, where I was lodged in a loft, being shown to my bed by the light of a tallow dip, in the primitive style of that region. I had gone to bed and was falling asleep when I felt something cold and slimy wrap itself around my foot, and, jumping out of bed discovered it was a snake. With a cry of horror I loosened its hold and killed it with a blow, using my boot as a club. Two of the sons of my host, who were to be my bedfellows, appeared at this moment and were horrified, not that the snake had been there, but that it had been killed in the house. It was a cold night, but they turned me outdoors, and I had to take a six hours' ride before reaching a town where I could stop.

ONE OF THE MEANEST.

He Is a Postmaster and Charges for the Weight of the Ink.

"Talk about your mean ones," said the man with a straw in his mouth, "we've got the meanest darn cuss in the state runnin' the postoffice in our town."

"What's the likes of him?" inquired the man at the hay scales.

"Jist dirt mean, specially when it comes to money matters. T'other day I took a bundle of newspapers down to mail, and not knowin' how much the postage would be, I was goin' to git it weighed and direct it when I put on the stamps. He didn't charge me for weighing it, and said it was two cents. I backed it and handed it in to him to drop it in the bag, but instead of that he dropped it on the scales again."

"This is three cents," says he.

"You told me it was only two," says I.

"Well, that was before you wrote on it," says he in the nagginest kind of a way; "that there ink jist raises it a notch."

"You didn't pay it, did you?" ventured the hay scales man.

"Course I did; he'd held it for postage it I hadn't and charged me storage besides. That's the kind of meaner he is," and the man with the straw in his mouth walked away.

What His Honor Saw.

"A sight so strange I could hardly credit my own eyes," said Justice John W. Streaker, of Jonestown, "was that of a red fox surrounded by a multitude of buzzards, which had evidently determined to devour the little animal. The birds, with their wings raised as if to do battle, seemed about to close in on the fox. He was very much alarmed, and as soon as I scared his tormentors away he made off on a double quick. His troubles were not yet ended, however, for away in the distance I observed a flock of crows fly down at him and peck him unmercifully, but he finally escaped to the woods."

Didn't Matter to Her.

Kate Field tells a story of a man and woman who were horribly seasick crossing the channel. The stewardess found them sitting together on the deck, the woman leaning back with closed eyes and the man's head resting on her shoulder. "Your husband seems to feel even worse than you do," said the stewardess, sympathetically. The sick woman opened her eyes and glanced at her fellow-sufferer with a sort of despairing indifference. Then she gasped, as she closed her eyes wearily again: "He's not my husband; I'm sure I don't know who he is."

How He Spelled His Name.

The late Ottiwell Wood, one of the leading characters of New England, was once summoned as a witness in court. When he was called and sworn, the judge, not catching his name, asked him to spell it, whereupon Mr. Wood began:

"O, double t, i, double u, e, double l, double u, double o, d."

The judge was too thick witted to grasp the meaning of this string of words and letters, and, throwing down his pen in despair, exclaimed: "Most extraordinary name I ever heard: will you write it for me, Mr.—Mr.—Mr. Witness?"

The Late Judge Lamar.

Harper's Weekly tells that on one occasion he was taken to task by a lady at Bar Harbor who thought he did not recognize her. "Ah, judge," she said, "I am afraid you don't remember me; I met you here two years ago." "Remember you, madam!" was his quick reply, with one of his courtly bows; "why, I've been trying ever since to forget you." And she laughingly exclaimed: "Oh, go away, you dear, delightful old Southern humbug!"

San Francisco at Saint Lucia.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—A cable dispatch received at the navy department announces the arrival of the San Francisco at Saint Lucia, West Indies, yesterday. She will take on coal and proceed immediately to Bluefields, where she should arrive about Friday.

Republicans Carry Helena, Mont.

HELENA, Mont., April 4.—The election in this city yesterday was a victory for the republican party. Their candidate for mayor obtained a plurality of 700. Its most significant feature was the astonishing strength developed by the populists, the candidate of that party for mayor coming in second, a good hundred votes ahead of the democratic nominee.
